

A Long Weekend Itinerary for a Taste of

PARIS, FRANCE

This trip was taken in the month of February for a taste of Paris, France. After flying into Charles de Gaulle, we taxied to our hotel and hit the streets on a food tour, exploring the underground catacombs, cruising along the Seine at sunset, and enjoying a great dinner at a local bistro. The next day we wandered through Parisian neighborhoods and made our way up the Eiffel Tower for a glass of bubbly followed by more architecture, art, and entertainment from the Arc de Triomphe to Monet's 'Water Lilies' and a dinner show at the Moulin Rouge. During our final full day in town we experienced the infamous Louvre and Sainte-Chapelle before wandering through more Parisian neighborhoods and checking out a speakeasy hidden in a laundromat. This trip was a full immersion into Parisian food, sites, & experiences!
